His No. 9859 dated 6th June 1912, intimating the despatch of a necessary tent.

In returning the necessary tent by goods train, has the honour to state that the same is old and mildewed and undergone several repairs. It is torn in many places and is very unwieldy. A handy new one may be kindly sent in its place, if possible, otherwise, the undersigned thinks that he can afford to be without one as hithertofore.

The Railway receipt is enclosed and the receipt of the tent may be kindly acknowledged.
